

Accountancy for SMEs

Choosing the right accountant is of vital importance for small and medium size business owners. For one thing, picking the wrong team for the job could mean missing out on critical reliefs and deductions that might otherwise have saved you money. Plus Minus are specialists in all areas of accounting for small and medium size companies, offering a range of tailored services to support your company's growth.

Start-up advice

Starting a new company can be a stressful and exhilarating experience, especially if you're new to running a business. Plus Minus have a range of accounting services to guide you through the whole process, from putting together your business plan to registering your company and running the day-to-day. Having us on your side from the get-go also helps us to tailor our services to your specific needs and challenges, ensuring business starts as you mean it to go on—upwards and outwards!

Supporting your growth

You may be a small business owner, but it pays to think big. We've come across one too many entrepreneurs whose small business accountants are holding them back. Benefit from our extensive resources and flexible, bespoke accountancy services to ensure your company gets the space it needs to grow.

Specialists in small and medium companies

Each of our partners and associates has worked with small business owners in London for more than 15 years. We have dealt with all areas of taxation to become intimately acquainted with the business challenges you face. Drawing on our combined knowledge and experience, we can provide comprehensive advice and support for companies in virtually any industry.

Dedicated support

Our accountancy services go far beyond the day-to-day. With us, you'll have a dedicated partner to answer all your questions, correspond with HMRC, and provide specially tailored, creative advice on growing your business. And since we don't consider these services 'extra' but an essential part of good accountancy practice, our prices remain highly competitive.

Comprehensive services

We offer everything a standard accountancy firm does and more, tailoring our comprehensive accountancy services to nurture the growth of any company. In addition to start-up advice, we provide expert support on payroll, auto-enrolment pension schemes, VAT, cash flow and forecasting, exit planning, tax planning and mitigation, and your specific business strategy, among a range of other services.
